Don't forget the Community Xmas tree and exercises at the U. B. church Saturday evening, Dec. 24. This is your Xmas and my Xmas and everybody's Xmas. It doesn't make a bit of difference which church you belong to, or whether you belong to any church, you are invited to take part in this, and you are expected to help make it a success. Will try and publish the program next week.

Last Friday afternoon, as five of our leading business and professional men were congregated in the office of the Chippewa Elevator Co., swapping lies and telling the world how to make Chippewa Lake safe for democracy, they saw a neighbor woman, whom they took to be a Red Cross solicitor, coming in. Well, three of them "flew the coop" like a flock of rats deserting a sinking ship and the joke of it was she was not a Red Cross worker at all, but was simply after a neighbor to help care for the livestock while her husband was sick. And Sherm Barrett says such "cusses" should be put on the chain gang, or some other "kid glove" job for a month or two.

As Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cassidy and Mrs. J. K. Ritter were on their way to Cleveland last Tuesday they had a collision with a milk truck, on account of both machines skidding in the slippery road. The folks got a pretty good shaking up, but none of them was seriously injured, and Mr. Cassidy was able to drive his car back to Medina where he got it fixed up.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Leohr and son William visited friends in Lodi Sunday.
